Celebrate your Teaching Heroes in 2021

Now more than ever, schools and colleges need a reason to feel joyful, and The Pearson National Teaching Awards can be just that. A prestigious, UK-wide celebration of teaching, known as the 'Oscars' of the teaching world and televised by the BBC, the awards comprise 14 categories including individual, whole school/college, and team awards.

Entries close at midnight on the 12th March.

Just being nominated gives a teacher, their school or college and students a sense of their value being recognised. Winning an award can have a huge impact, not just on the winner, but also on the wider community. You can read about how winning an award has made a difference to teachers as well as their school or college and communities here.

The awards are open to all state and independent schools and FE colleges in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, and are free to enter. It's easy to enter, and it makes such a difference - this is your chance to celebrate excellence in your school or college! Enter online at www.teachingawards.com before 12th March.
